

Local and Personal

John Briscoe is in town attending court.

W. A. Jackson left Tuesday for Amarillo where he went on business.

Hon. Manuel C. De Baca of Connant is here attending District Court.

T. A. Wayne shipped two car loads of cattle to Kansas City last Sunday.

Harry Neal, prominent business man of Texico, spent several days in Tucumcari.

Judge Long of Las Vegas, a prominent attorney is attending court here this week.

The County Commissioners are in session this week to attend to unfinished business.

S. H. Cover and wife returned last Monday from El Paso where they had spent a week.

P. E. Edwards of Pikstaff, Ill., is here visiting his brother-in-law, Attorney C. C. Davidson.

Herman Reinken of the Reinken Mercantile Company at Logan was a business visitor Monday.

There is a large number of people in town from various parts of the county to attend court.

The Bell Ranch people shipped several car loads of fat cattle this week to Kansas City markets.

W. E. Dudley, member of the New Mexico Mounted Police, came in Wednesday from Alamogordo.

Irvin Ogden, editor of What Cheer Patriot, What Cheer, Ia., is in the city looking for investments.

Jack Maxwell, Rough Rider, with Curry in the Phillipines, is here from Santa Rosa and intends to locate.

Some of the best Yellow Dent Indian corn we have seen was brought in Tuesday by J. M. Jenkins of Moore.

Henry Goke of Las Negrs, left last night for Tucumcari, where he will spend a short time on business. —Las Vegas Optic.

John Franklin of El Paso, attorney for the El Paso and Southwestern Railway attended District court here a day or two.

Julio Salos was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and fined $500 last Thursday after pleading guilty to horse stealing.

John C. Cox has accepted a position with C. T. Adair. Mr. Swartz resigned last week on account of his farm interests.

John G. Chambers, revenue collector for the city of Ardmore, Okla., is here at present visiting his sister, Mrs. L. E. Sherwood.

I. V. Gallegos, U. S. Court Commissioner at Isidor, and a brother of Hon. N. V. Gallegos of this city was in town several days visiting his brother and family.

Mrs. J. M. Sylvester, wife of the job foreman of this office arrived last night from Albuquerque.

Pay day Monday was a good one. something near $30,000 turned loose in Tucumcari makes business.

George Sena, interpreter for the sixth judicial district arrived Tuesday from Lincoln. Sena is among the best interpreters in New Mexico.

The booze fighters have trouble with John Cadger, city marshal, as regular as the days roll around. He is about the busiest man in town.

J. W. Jenkins of Moore out in the Mesa Rodondo district brought in a fine exhibit of farm products Tuesday and left them at the News office.

Messrs. Gamble and Askew left Tuesday morning for Dallas where they will attend the Fair, visit relatives and take an all around vacation.

W. H. Oyler and family left Tuesday night for a trip to Texas and Arkansas. They are going for the purpose of benefitting Mrs. Oyler's health.

J. E. Wharton of the firm of Wharton and Lawson, lawyers at Alamogordo, came in Wednesday morning to attend the Quay county District Court.

Will C. Morgan, special representative of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company at El Paso, Texas, is in the city in the interest of his company.

The News would like to suggest to the City Council that the hobo element from the city bastille can just as well do the city's scavenger work as not.

Fowler and Lannigan are building a cafe and wholesale liquor house back of the Legal Tender Saloon. Lanigan is also building a two story adobe west of the Coney Island.

J. L. House, the United States Commissioner at House was in town the first of the week. He was summoned as a petit jurymen, but owing to official duties at home was excused.

In giving the list of premiums given at the Fair which were published in last week's issue, we forgot to mention the premium given Earnest Simpson for the best two-year-old horse.

Clarence Weatherford of San Jon and Miss Bessie Crosby of this city were married last Thursday evening at the home of the bride by the Rev. J. W. Campbell. They left Friday morning for Clarendon, Texas, where they will make their future home.

Miss Mott, a trained nurse of the Providence Hospital at El Paso, Texas, is here waiting on Herman Gerhardt, who has been quite sick for some time.

D. J. Rickard, a painter, died in this city last Wednesday of heart trouble. He was here alone and it is not known where his home is, so he was buried Thursday by the Painters' Union.

O. M. Johns brought in three tomatoes. They weigh two and one half pounds each and were grown without irrigation. He has a great quantity of them. How's that for tomatoes?

C. E. Marr, a farmer south of town called at this office Monday and said to the editor he had commenced to gather his cotton and supposed he would be compelled to gin at Hereford.

The wheat crop sowed in September is up and looking fine. Many of our farmers have fall wheat two and three inches high. Those who had wheat this year harvested good crops.

Quay county needs a jail and must have a jail. Conditions are bad up there. John Cadger, city marshal puts into durance vile from one to eight a day lately and these with the county's quota crowds the bastille to over flowing.

Manuelita O. de Sanchez died October 21st of Bright's disease, at the home of her son, Emilio Sanchez. The remains were taken to Las Vegas for interment accompanied by her sons Emilio and Del-fido Sanchez.

Frank D. Baker, who has been in a hospital in Denver for the past three months, returned home Thursday very much improved in health. This is the third time Frank has been in the same hospital and his friends are gratified to see him return in health.

Visiting Attorneys

Attorneys from out of town who are attending this term of the Quay County District Court as follows:

Edward R. Wright, Santa Rosa; J. E. Wharton, Alamogordo; Jas. A. Pace, Clayton; Judge E. V. Long, Las Vegas; Jno. Franklin, El Paso, Texas; George Culp, Gainesville, Texas.

See the Evans Realty Company for a School Section, eight miles south of town. 3tf

MISS O'HEIR

Public Stenographer

At Office of Evans Realty Co.
Dictation, Copying, Etc

Grand Rally

AND

PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting will be held at the Court House on Saturday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Statehood-League of Quay County. Prominent speakers will honor the occasion and speak on the subject of statehood. Judge E. A. Mann, Hon. J. E. Wharton and others. Every citizen in Quay County should turn out and be at the meeting--non-partisan.

Theo. W. Heman
R. P. Donahoo
Donald Stewart

C. C. Davidson
I. C. Barnes
Frank C. Matteson